PRESS RELEASE January 15, 2013

According to Lt. Carl Dondorfer, on January 10, 2013, the Lake County Sheriff's Office responded to an address on Arlington Avenue in Painesville Township regarding a suspicious circumstance complaint. The reporting party indicated that he had been asked by two known subjects to pawn some stolen property which according to the caller was taken from a home which was recently burglarized.

The subsequent investigation by Deputy Allan Moon revealed that the two suspects, Scott Stasienco, age 30 and his 19 year old girlfriend, Josie Sidoti, both of Painesville Twp. had pawned or sold several articles of property at various pawn and cash for gold shops in the Lake County area. The property included a firearm, World War II memorabilia, knives, jewelry, collector coins, an antique typewriter and a bank check.

It was determined that the home which was forcibly entered by Stasienco while Sidoti assisted him was that of his parents' residence located on Overlook Dr. in Painesville Twp. Scott Stasienco was arrested on January 11th on an unrelated Domestic Violence charge, and was subsequently charged with Burglary. Sidoti was located and arrested by Deputy Moon on yesterday, and was charged with Burglary and other additional criminal charges may be filed.

Several articles of this stolen property were recovered during the course of this investigation.
